

Information for Libraries

If a library wishes to take out a subscription for n.paradoxa: international feminist art journal, there are several options available:

1) Electronic Subscription: All volumes: Volumes 1-30

An annual electronic order for all volumes 1-30 to provide IP access across the library.

(This includes the 2012 subscription for volumes 29, 30).

The cost of this is £125 for first year, followed by £100 renewal per year for all subsequent years to maintain and build subscription. Each year will include the two new volumes for the calendar year.

2) Electronic Subscription: Recent volumes only: Volumes 27 onwards

Purchase volumes 27,28,29 (special offer to start the scheme) as an electronic subscription.

This would cost £30 for year 1 and then to renew and maintain subscription for volumes 27-31 a further £32.

The £32 would be the ongoing renewal rate for subsequent years.

Please note: This is an introductory offer for a new combined subscription and will include access to 3 volumes (electronic) (27,28, 29) and two in print (28, 29). This will be available on orders up until end of Dec 2011.

In Jan 2012, this offer will change to the 2012 print subscription for volumes 29 (Jan 2012) and 30 (July 2012) and electronic access to volumes 28, 29, 30.

3) Combined print and electronic option in two forms:

3a) Electronic access to all volumes, (1-30) combined with a print subscription to new volumes £125 for the first year, £100 for each subsequent year, plus £32 or £39 a year (dependent on postal zones) for 2 print volumes (ie the new print volumes). Renewal for 2nd year would be £132/£139 (dependent on postal zone) and will include the 2 new volumes in print and electronically as well as access to the previous year's subscription electronically.

3b) Electronic access to recent volumes 27, 28, 29 (to start the subscription) plus volumes 28, 29 in print at £48. Renewal for each subsequent year (e.g. volumes 27-31 electronic, plus 30, 31 in print) at £42 or £48 (dependent on postal zone) for 2 print volumes (ie the new print volumes). Renewal will include on-going access to previous year's subscription electronically.

4) Print Only: The subscription for print only is for 2 volumes at £32 a year for UK/Europe or £39 a year for USA/Canada/RoW(postage included). Print volumes are published in January and July.

Please note: Libraries do not have the right to archive the articles as part of their collection as part of an electronic order nor to keep access to the files in their database after the subscription has ended.

The print copy of the journal is available for purchase to archive for the collection.

A print order can be run concurrently with the electronic subscription (see 3a and 3b above).

Electronic subscriptions are for one calendar year only.

Cancellation cannot be made part way through the year.

Payments can be made in $'s – by invoice and bank transfer to KT press' US bank account at current exchange rates or by cheque in $ or £. Bank information is given on invoices. All cheques should be made out to "KT press". Orders can be placed directly with KT press by email or using this form.

Orders can also be sent through subscription agents: EBSCO, Swets or Harrassowitz.

IP ranges will be entered manually into our database on payment.

Access does not require login. This is an automatic IP access.

If there is no proxy server, then IP ranges may be limited to computers on campus.

(This is dependent on how IP access is configured).

There is no username/password access for readers.

There is a username/password access for librarians to monitor the order/account details.

Libraries would have to enter the details of n.paradoxa's electronic form into their database.
